

Erasmus Mundus TEMA – call for visiting scholars

Erasmus Mundus TEMA – European Territories (Civilisation, Nation, Region, City): Identity and Development – has reopened the call for visiting scholars for the next year. The TEMA Erasmus Mundus Master Course welcomes outstanding scholars (academics and professionals), who are interested in contributing to the TEMA programme, while carrying out independent research. The fellowships are offered to scholars from non EU countries only.