

European Master Course TEMA – The application for self- paying students is now open!

The 2-year-long (120 ECTS) European Master Course TEMA European Territories (Civilisation, Nation, Region, City): Identity and Development proposes the analysis of political use and scientific representation of territorial units (civilization, nation, region, city) in an interdisciplinary, research-based curriculum.

Organised in four major modules: civilization, nation, region and city, that represent four research scales, as well as four different approaches to historical, political, social and cultural issues of space and those of territory, the TEMA Master Course is offered by a consortium of the following European universities: Eötvös Loránd University of Budapest, École des Hautes Etudes en Sciences Sociales of Paris, University of Catania and Charles University of Prague.

The on-line application for self-paying students is now open until 20th August.

More information about the master program to be found on <http://mastertema.eu/>.

We invite you to experience the interdisciplinary study program based mainly in history, geography, anthropology, and sociology in Prague, Budapest, Paris and Catania. Small student's groups, individual supervision.
