

Information for Prospective Students of the Faculty of Arts, Charles University (27 March 2020)

In compliance with the instruction of the Management of Charles University, the deadlines for submitting applications for programmes and studies, initially set on 31 March 2020, are extended until 15 April 2020. At the moment, everything else remains the same.

The submission of applications for the majority of BA programmes and studies ended on 29 February 2020. Now, application for the five later accredited programmes may be submitted until 15 April 2020. More information here.

Applications for all follow-up MA programmes and studies may be submitted until 15 April 2020. More information here.

Applications for PhD programmes and studies may be submitted until 30 April 2020. More information here.

We will inform you about any potential changes without delay in the news on the webpage of the Faculty (<https://www.ff.cuni.cz/home/>) and prospective students with a valid application also via e-mail. At the moment, the following applies:

- If you wish to still apply, do so within the stated period. The deadline may or may not be extended again.
- The processing of applications, fees, and requests continues. Everything is directed to fulfil the Admission Requirements.
- We are at your disposal on our e-mail and telephone numbers. Calls us on 221 619 300, 221 619 330 and 221

619 333 during working days between 9 am – 2 pm; and write to us anytime on prijimacky@ff.cuni.cz.