

Access to Digital Collections of NDK-COVID Extended until 30 June

Based on a new agreement between the Ministry of Culture of the Czech Republic and the Association of Czech Booksellers and Publishers, the unlimited access to the digital collection of the National Library of the Czech Republic has been extended for students, teachers, and researchers until 30 June 2021.

The digital collections of the National Library – NDK-COVID contain more than 206,000 digital books, magazines, and newspapers on the extent of 64 million pages that can be accessed online from anywhere via the Kramerius platform after you sign in with an account of any of the engaged institutions (including Charles University).

The collection NDK-COVID can be accessed through <https://ndk.cz/podminky-zpristupneni/> when you sign in with your university account via the gateway eduID. The logon is identical to the one used in CAS and other university electronic services.

More information and links

- The overview of more temporarily accessible digital collections can be found on <http://www.digitalniknihovna.cz/> (click on the button in the upper-right button to switch to English)
- List of handy links during the closure of libraries. HERE