

Prof. Jacobsen Introduces Law Books and Faroese Ballads

The Faculty of Arts, Charles University, and the Faculty of Humanities CU cordially invites you to a cycle of lectures by Prof. Helen Frances Leslie-Jacobsen (University of Bergen) that will be held at both faculties from 26 to 29 April 2022.

Law Books in Norway and Iceland

Tuesday 26 April, 8 am, Faculty of Humanities CU, Pátkova 2137/5, 182 00, Prague 8 – Libeň, room 2.41

Legal, Religious and Medical Spheres of Madness in Medieval Norway and Iceland

Tuesday 26 April, 11 am, Faculty of Humanities CU, Pátkova 2137/5, 182 00, Prague 8 – Libeň, room 2.41

Law Books in Norway and Iceland

Wednesday 27 April, 12:30, CU FA, nám. J. Palacha 2, 116 38, Prague 1, room P304

Germanic Hero Sigurðr Fáfnisbani in Norwegian context

Wednesday 27 April, 2:10 pm, CU FA, nám. J. Palacha 2, 116 38, Prague 1, room P304

---

Helen Leslie Jacobsen is from the Norwegian Bergen. The main focus of her research are issues related to the translation of medieval Scandinavian texts, Old Norse law books, narrative techniques in Old Norse literature, and Faerese ballads (especially of the Völsung Cycle)