

Faculty of Arts, Charles University, Will Host the International Conference on Chinese, Indian, and Japanese Philosophy

The conference “Society for Asian and Comparative Philosophy: Philosophical Encounters” will be held on 16–18 September 2024 at the main building of CU FA. The co-organisers are the Chiang Ching-kuo Foundation International Sinological Centre at Charles University, the Department of Sinology at CU FA, the Department of Philosophy and Religious Studies at CU FA, and the Oriental Institute of the Czech Academy of Sciences; the main organiser is the Society for Asian and Comparative Philosophy.

56th Annual Conference of the Society for Asian and Comparative Philosophy:
Philosophical Encounters

KEYNOTE
Jeffrey Riegel (University of California Berkeley, US)
Ferenc Ruzsa (Eötvös Loránd University, Budapest, Hungary)

ORGANISED BY SACP
www.sacp.org
CCK-ISC
www.cckisc.ff.cuni.cz
Oriental Institute of the Czech Academy of Science
Department of Sinology and Department of Philosophy and Religious Studies, Faculty of Arts, Charles University

16 - 18 SEPTEMBER | Charles University Prague, Faculty of Arts | nám. Jana Palacha 1/2

 FACULTY OF ARTS
Charles University

 SACP

 Oriental Institute
Department of Sinology and Department of Philosophy and Religious Studies

SCAN ME ->

This year, the conference will focus on East and Southeast Asian thinking in relation to continental philosophy. The conference will feature keynote speakers Jeffrey Riegel (UC Berkley) and Ferenc Ruzsa (Eötvös Loránd University, Budapest). Participants may attend welcome dinner with a mini concert by the Chamber Orchestra of Department of Sinology focused on Chinese music, a guided tour around the Náprstek Museum, and an informal walking tour of Prague's Old Town, Lesser Town, and Prague Castle.

You may find more information about the conference here.