

Programmes

The International Relations Office of the Faculty of Arts assists to foreign students who come to study on the basis of existing agreements between universities, governments or other institutions. These stays are short-term (up to three semesters) and students comply with a learning agreement approved in advance by their home universities. During this type of study a student does not graduate (i.e. she/he does not receive a degree and a diploma). If a student wishes to complete a full study programme, she/he has to apply to the Registrar and fulfill all the conditions necessary for admission.

Visiting students may use one of the following options:

- Governmental scholarship
- Direct exchange (University and Faculty agreements)
 - Erasmus+
 - CEEPUS
 - AKTION
- Visegrad Fund
- ECES – East and Central European Studies
 - Freemovers
- Czech Studies programme
