

Workshop

The rise and development of the solar cult and architecture in Ancient Egypt.

December 15th, 2017

Akademické konferenční centrum AV ČR,
Husova 4a, 110 00 Praha 1

PROGRAM

9.00 - 9.15: Introduction

9.15 - 10.00: M. Bárta: Cult of the sun in Ancient Egypt and the Abusir evidence

10.00 - 10.30: M. Ismail: Recent discoveries from the causeway of Sahura

10.30 - 11.00: coffee break

11.00 - 11.30: M. Peterková Hlouchová: Protection of Sunrise: Shu, Tefnut and Re in the Pyramid Texts

11.30 - 12.00: M. Nuzzolo: The Sun Temple of Niuserra: open questions and new evidences

12.00 - 12.30: J. Krejčí: Solar aspects of the Old Kingdom royal mortuary architecture

12.30 - 14.00: Lunch Break

14.00 - 14.45: D. Raue: Heliopolis in the Old Kingdom: A view from inside

14.45 - 15.15: R. Pirelli: Hatshepsut. Between Tradition and Innovation

15.15 - 15.45: coffee break

15.45 - 16.15: A. Ćwiek: Daughter of Ra. Solar Paths of Deir el-Bahari

16.15 - 16.45: N. Marković: 'Apis is Ptah, Apis is Re, Apis is Horus, son of Isis': the solar aspect of the Apis bull and the royal ideology of the Late Period

16.45 - 17.30: Closing Discussion

With the support of:

